The "MAYOR'S CORNER"

I was given the honor of saying a few words at the Memorial Day Observance at Woodville Cemetery again this year. For those of you who weren't able to attend, I thought I'd share my short speech here:

"Someone once said "Courage is the willingness to be afraid but to act anyway". This is true of every soldier, in every war and conflict our Nation has seen."

Those of us who have not served will never fully understand the sacrifices our soldiers make. Since the birth of these United States, there have always been courageous men and women standing in the gap to protect our nation and ensure our freedoms.

As we set today aside to honor those that gave their lives doing so, let us be mindful that we should do this every day of the year and not just this one. And let us also remember that the preservation of our freedom and our way of life is not just the duty of our soldiers but must be undertaken by all citizens.

City Councilor Don Dougherty recited a poem at the end of our council meeting the other night called "Freedom is not Free", written by a young man named Kelly Strong. Its poignant message is clear and though the fallen have paid the ultimate price, it is up to each and every one of us to contribute to the cost of freedom by ensuring our democracy does not fail. To make democracy work, we must be a nation of participants, not simply observers. As former Justice Marshall Thurgood said, "Where you see wrong or inequality or injustice, speak out, because this is your country. This is your democracy. Make it. Protect it. Pass it on."

After you leave here today, whether you're planning to BBQ with family and friends, go shopping or do yardwork, I ask that you take a few moments to say a prayer of thanks to all of those that gave up their tomorrows that you might have the freedoms of today."

Respectfully Yours, Mayor Pam
